

Why it gets cold in winter

In winter we get less heat from the sun.

The earth goes around the sun once each year.

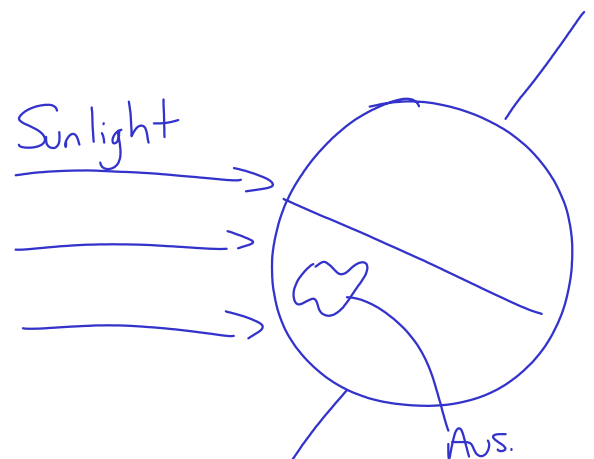

Earth spins to make day and night. But the axis is tilted.

The sun is low in the sky in July. So we get less heat. That makes it winter.

In January

The sun is high in the sky in January so we get lots of heat and it's summer